17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

A delegation from the University of Al-Noor Council, led by Professor Dr. Yaseen Taha Al-Hajjar, the university's president, along with several council members, visited Al-Furqan University. They were received by Professor Dr. Abi Saeed Al-Diwaji, the president of Al-Furqan University, accompanied by a number of university council members. During the visit, they engaged in preliminary discussions to establish solid foundations for cooperation and to enhance the performance of private higher education institutions in Nineveh. At the end of the visit, the University of Al-Nour Council presented a bouquet of flowers to the president of Al-Furqan University.
