17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation. Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

17 - Partnerships for The Goals

A delegation from the University of Al-Noor, headed by Professor Dr. Yaseen Taha Al-Hajjar, the university's president, along with his academic and administrative assistants, the chairman of the founding body, the deans of the colleges, and the secretary of the university council, visited Al-Hadbaa University. They were welcomed by the university president, Professor Dr. Badi Ahmed Ali, along with his academic and administrative assistants and several college deans. They engaged in preliminary discussions aimed at establishing advanced foundations for academic cooperation and strengthening the progress of private higher education. At the end of the meeting, the delegation from the University of Al-Nour presented a bouquet of flowers to the Al-Hadbaa University community.
