17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

The world today is more interconnected than ever before. Improving access to technology and knowledge is a crucial way to exchange ideas and foster innovation.

Additionally, coordinating policies to help developing countries manage their debts, as well as encouraging investment in the least developed countries, is vital for achieving growth and sustainable development.

A delegation from Dar Al-Mamoun for Translation and Publishing at the Ministry of Culture, Tourism, and Antiquities visited Al-Noor University with the purpose of preparing a journalistic report about the university to be published in one of the French-language magazines and periodicals issued by the organization. The Assistant Professor Dr. Ismail Abdulwahab, Assistant President of the University for Scientific Affairs, met with the delegation and provided them with an informative overview of the university. He also organized a guided tour around the campus, including the radio station, laboratories, halls, clinics, and departments.
